Below is the message I received back from Mr. Two Eagle. I was hoping he stated a Lakota word that sounded like "would" but evidently he didn't. So I'm not sure what to do with his reply. I don't think we can just remove the word "would" from this sentence, because I think you have to include in the transcript what you heard or recorded, right? Thanks!

Mr. Two Eagle,

I am reviewing the transcript from the public hearing in Valentine, NE on April 27. I would like to clarify a statement you made:

"We call it would Unci Maka, Mother Earth.

I was thinking that the word "would" is out of place here. Did you say a Lakota word here that sounded like "would"?

Thanks!

Valois
